

Homœopathy at Wellie Level

Teaching the responsible use of homœopathy on the farm

TERMS AND CONDITIONS: Online Course

- Only registered students who have paid their course fees AND SIGNED THEIR AGREEMENT will be admitted.
- This is an independently run course and is not sponsored by any company.
- The course structure, materials and content remain the copyright of HAWL.
- The instruction on the course is given in good faith, intending to help students understand how to take their own homœopathic decisions where they feel competent. The instructors will not prescribe for any case or advise on or take any responsibility for any animal not under their care.
- The recommendations and instructions given during this course are not intended to take the place of normal veterinary consultations.
- Sessions will be taken by qualified professional homœopaths and homœopathic veterinary surgeons.
- A Certificate of attendance will be only be awarded to students who attend all teaching sessions.
- No refunds for non attendance. Each session builds on understanding acquired on the previous day thus absentees are not able to attend subsequent sessions but may attend those missed sessions on the next HAWL online course free of charge.
- Each student agrees, as and when asked by the organisers, to be available in the future, for assessment of the course content and its effect on their management strategy. Please note, this is an assessment of the course and the lecturers NOT of the students' competence!!! It will look to see how well we have done our job.
- All sessions start on time so students need to log in punctually, at least 5 minutes before the sessions start.

AGREEMENT. I HAVE READ ALL THE AIMS OF THIS COURSE AND ALL THE TERMS AND ALL THE CONDITIONS OF THIS COURSE . I AGREE TO THEM ALL.
