TERMS AND CONDITIONS: Classroom Course

· Only registered students who have paid their course fees AND SIGNED THEIR AGREEMENT will be admitted.

No visitors, no dogs.

· Please do not wander away from the group when we are out on the farms. Venues have been kindly offered without charge, so we are visitors on their property.

·

This is an independently run course and is not sponsored by any company.

·

The course structure, materials and content remain the copyright of HAWL.

·

The instruction on the course is given in good faith, intending to help students understand how to take their own homœopathic decisions where they feel competent.

The instructors will not prescribe for any case or advise on or take any responsibility for any animal not under their care.

· The recommendations and instructions given during this course are not intended to take the place of normal veterinary consultations.

· Sessions will be taken by qualified professional homœopaths and homœopathic veterinary surgeons.

· A Certificate of attendance will be only be awarded to students who attend all 3 days.

· No refunds for non attendance. Each day builds on understanding acquired on the previous day thus absentees are not able to attend subsequent days.

· Each student agrees, as and when asked by the organizers, to be available in the future, for assessment of the course content and its effect on their management strategy. Please note, this is an assessment of the course and the lecturers NOT of the students' competence!!! It will look to see how well we have done our job.

· All sessions start on time so students need to arrive punctually well before 9.00 am. for registration on Day 1, revision and quizzes on Day 2 and 3.

· We do not wait for late comers and the first sections are VITAL.

AGREEMENT. I HAVE READ ALL THE AIMS OF THIS COURSE AND ALL THE TERMS AND ALL THE CONDITIONS OF THIS COURSE . I AGREE TO THEM ALL.
